Central Bank of India has suspended one of its officers and withheld the terminal benefits of another officer pending disposal of criminal and civil action filed against them by the Bank.

Grant of loans for industrial and business purposes

2716. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether the present system of loans granted to the industrial and business purposes is very defective and the payments are released by the banks without verification;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to amend the rules in regard to the advance of loans; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI) : (a) Reserve Bank of India has reported that it is not correct to state that the present system of loans granted for industrial and business purposes is very defective or that payments are released by banks without verification. By and large all banks have well defined systems and and procedures ofr grant of advances for various purposes and defects noticed could be attributed mainly to failure to comply with prescribed procedures in individual cases. Further, in many cases actual performance of borrowers falls short of projections made at the time of assessment of proposals due to factors beyond the control of banks. Due verification is also made by banks before disbursements are actually made.

(b) and (c) Do not arise.

(a) whether it is a fact that National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development have failed in its objective pertaining to agricultural and rural development;

(b) whether it is a fact that instead of making available loans at reduced rates of interest the profits of NABARD have considerably increased during the last three years;

(c) if so, what are the details in this regard; and

(d) what steps Government propose to take to make NABARD achieve its goal of agricultural development ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI) : (a) to (d) National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) has been set up for providing credit for the promotion of agriculture, small scale, cottage and village industries, handicrafts and other allied rural economic activities in an integrated manner with pointed focus and forceful direction. Since the establishment of NABARD there has been no increase in the rates of interest charged by NABARD from the constituent bankers even though the cost of funds for NABARD has increased. The amount of refinance provided by NABARD for schematic lending increased from Rs. 703 crores in 1982-83 to Rs. 1192 crores (provisional) in 1985-86 registering a growth of about 70%. The profits earned by NABARD during the 3 years since inception are indicated below :

1982.83 : Rs.93.89 crores

1983-84 : Rs. 143.30 crores

1984-85 : Rs. 184.83 crores.

The profits earned by NABARD are ploughed into the various funds maintained under the provisions of the NABARD Act, 1981 with a view to augment the resources of NABARD. The activities of NABARD are periodically reviewed by a Board of
